2^D SESSION

H. J. RES. 340

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to provide that no person born to parents who are unlawfully in the United States at the time of the birth shall be a United States citizen on account of birth in the United States.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 16, 1994

Mr. TAYLOR of North Carolina (for himself and Mr. SOLOMON) introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to provide that no person born to parents who are unlawfully in the United States at the time of the birth shall be a United States citizen on account of birth in the United States.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled
3 (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol-
4 lowing article is proposed as an amendment to the Con-

1 stitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all
2 intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when
3 ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several
4 States within seven years after the date of its submission
5 to the States for ratification:

6 “ARTICLE —

7 “SECTION 1. No person born in the United States
8 after the date of the ratification of this article shall be
9 a citizen of the United States, or of any State, on account
10 of birth in the United States unless the mother or father
11 of the person is a citizen of the United States, is lawfully
12 in the United States, or has a lawful status under the im-
13 migration laws of the United States, at the time of the 14 birth.

15 “SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to en-
16 force this article by appropriate legislation.”.
